

Uncle Andy and Aunt Eva Hensley

We loved Steve a lot. He was a little boy when we got married, and it's hard to put on paper all the good memories. I loved to get his Christmas letters and we still have them all.

Steve was so appreciative. I gave him some small airplanes a few years ago and you would have thought I gave him a priceless treasure. He gave me a big hug, which he always did.

We really miss Steve flying over our house. When we first moved in, he took pictures of our house. A few years ago he had so much fun going through the pictures at Christmas. He had one picture of us when we got married, and Steve was in the picture. He had a copy made of that picture. He was so thrilled when he found it.

The memories we have of Steve are very special.
